

NEW-YORK DAILY TRIBUNE, MONDAY, JULY 23, 1866.

New Publications.

THE TWO SUMMER BOOKS.

THEIR LITERARY LANDSCAPE AND POETRY.

With many Illustrations engraved by Andrew from drawings by

By the Rev. THOMAS STARKE KING.

Specimens, Price 40.

The name of the Rev. T. Starke King, is almost immediate and general attention. Those who would possess a good graphic and lifelike description of the White Isle of New-Hampshire, those who are interested in the history and manners of the people, and energy consider those who have to pore over Indian legends and stories of early days; those who are delighted with vivid and enthusiastic descriptions of the bold and rugged scenes of the country, will find in the book a gratification far beyond ordinary opportunities of life's nature."

CATTER'S SUMMER CRUISE. A SUMMER CRUISE ON THE COAST OF NEW-ENGLAND.

By ROBERT CATTER.

Price, $1.00.

When that last letter was written, it was a reward for a new pleasure, he was already at foot to be anticipated Mr. Carter by a Summer Cruise as a means of exercise, instead of bringing him to get to it at Thermopylae and Calais—Commonwealths.

He has now completed his cruise, and has given us a full and detailed account of his summer's vacation, value able information and a delightful play of humor combining a preface as follows:

"A Summer's result in this country can best be told in this sentence—It is a pleasure."

A NEW NOVEL BY THE AUTHOR OF "HIGGIE."

BY APPLETON & COMPANY,

No. 443 and 455 BROADWAY,

BOSTON AND NEW YORK.

"HIGGIE."

By H. C. BROWN.

1 volume, 12 mo., cloth. Price $2.

"The scene is laid in a New-England village; the plot is most admirably conceived and the style is a marked improvement upon the work of the author. The story is told in the same time as the story is interesting and exciting; one who has been accustomed to the reading techniques, even to the laying aside of all ordinary duties, will be greatly pleased by this book.

"Higgie," the author of the story, is a model to many and young girls who would do well to imitate her example. We predict for "Higgle" an audience wide.
